COFFERINGS.

F. S. Douglas returned on the train this evening after a somewhat extended trip in the east. He is in first-class health and enjoyed his trip very much.

Sid Harris came in on the train this evening well pleased to be through with his jury service. Sid says it may be all right but he doesn't care for it himself.

H. G. Stegall returned from his trip to Tucson this evening after a number of days of high life. All Stegall wants now is to catch up his lost sleep, and he will be strictly in it, so he says.

The ladies of Queen Grove number 3 of the Woodmen Circle will give a calico ball on Thanksgiving night and we can all look forward to another good time. Each lady is supposed to attend in a calico dress if possible and to make a necktie of the same goods for the gentlemen's use. These ties will be carefully wrapped up, scattered in a basket and distributed. The gentleman must then hunt up the lady with a dress similar to his necktie and act as her escort during the evening. The affair will be a change from the ordinary dances and a large attendance and a good time is already assured.

Mike Cunningham came in from San Bernardino last night, having got all the fancy hunting he wants for awhile. Alex. Kier and John Bowen are still holding the fort, however, and expect to have a well filled game bag when they come in on the 23d. The only game killed up to the time of Mike's departure was a couple of meadow larks and Charley Crouch's dog, Johnny, the Bar Hunter, is responsible for the last fatality. The report is about town that Johnny saw the dog; through the brush and took it for a cinnamon bear. He fired six shots into it before he would approach near enough to see what he had and when he stumbled over the few remaining patches of dog he was so disheartened that he has not left camp since.

Notorious Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rivers Junction she was brought down with pneumonia, succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Tombstone and any Drug Store. Regular size 50c. $1.00

SUNSET LIMITED.

The Sunset Limited train which passes Benson twice a week going east or west is by far the finest and most magnificent transcontinental passenger train in existence. It is incomparable, unequalled and unequalled. No expense has been spared to make it perfect in every respect, and all that human skill or science could invent and apply to make it absolutely faultless has been applied. Luxury and beauty have been combined with strength and safety, and, moreover, it spans the continent, annihilating time and space in a marvelous flight. All who have had the pleasure of a trip on this train unhesitatingly pronounce it the very finest in the land. A ticket on this route costs no more than on the regular train.
